Tennis netting enthusiasts here, but courts said inadequate

It's tennis everyone in Canyon as the spring brings warm and sunny afternoons and week ends. From 5-year-olds on up to staid college professors, the craze which is sweeping America is also sweeping the city.

But, Canyon tennis buffs — whether of the sandlot or the more polished variety — complain that there simply aren't enough courts in Canyon to handle the interested ball-batters.

"There's tremendous interest here," says one of Canyon's most avid tennis players, Elton Cox. "I play every day or just about everyday and kids of all ages are out there trying to play. People all the way from five to 93 are out there."

Cox, a local attorney who took up tennis several years ago after heart surgery, said he's watched as the tennis boom has hit the city, from a time not many years ago when tennis was considered a pleasure of the wealthy.

Another avid tennis fan, Dr. Fred Stoker, a West Texas State University education professor, has been playing for nearly 30 years and he's enthusiastic in his support of the program.

"I just love the game," he said. "It's a life-time sport, something you can play all your life.

"It's relatively inexpensive — usually the courts are free and you can play at all levels, you can play well or play poorly."

Those seem to be the main reasons city folks are attracted now to tennis.

WTSU Tennis Coach David Kent, whose teams have produced Missouri Valley Conference championships in three of the last four years, says tennis is booming in Canyon.

"It's a family sport and a life-time sport," he said. "You can get a lot of exercise in a short period of time. It's relatively inexpensive — there's not a lot of equipment. It's something a boy and a girl can do together."

Kent said he feels the boom here is probably attributable to the same factor which has made tennis a boom sport all over the country. News media exposure of the game, he believes, has added to understanding and interest in tennis.

Another tennis buff, Larry Hooper, has been playing about five years and is introducing the sport to his son, Quinton, 5, who he says just "gets out and hits it around."

While local tennis enthusiasts agree that interest in the sport is definitely on the increase, they complain of what they term a lack of courts here.

Cox, for example, feels Canyon should have more courts not only for the use of residents who are interested in the game, but also for the use of Canyon High School tennis players who are currently without school courts.

"The only courts available to the public are the courts at WTSU," he said. "I've been out there when six-, eight-, nine- and 10-year olds were taking up courts and students had to wait."

Cox feels it unfair to WTSU students, who pay a part of their student fees for maintenance of the courts, to have to take second seat to local residents. The university has 14 outdoor courts just north of the activities center on campus.

"This is the only town I can think of with neither city nor school courts," he said. "They'll never have a tennis program at Canyon High until they get a coach and some courts for them to play on."

Cox said he is concerned not only with local enthusiasts having a court to play on, but also in the school district increasing the emphasis on tennis so the school can become competitive.

"This is a sport you can play the rest of your life," he said. "You can't play football for the rest of your life. That's a good sport but it's only for a short period of time."

Stoker, too, feels the city or school district should provide courts and commensurate emphasis on development of a solid high school tennis program.

"I think personally as a taxpayer, I resent having all the money thrown into football and basketball," he said. "It's time they quit giving lip service to lifetime sports and do something about it."

Stoker and Cox fear the time may not be too far off when the WTSU courts will no longer be available to townspeople and to the high school players.

"WT has such a saturated group of courts," he said. "They are rapidly being filled and I think in the future the university courts could be restricted to students and faculty. It's not fair to students not to be able to play when the townspeople and high school kids are playing when they ought to have their own (See TENNIS, Page 5)

Federal grant aids Palo Duro project

A $336,000 federal grant announced Monday should make facilities at Palo Duro Canyon State Park east of Canyon even more attractive to tourists and local week end fun-seekers.

State Rep. Bob Simpson announced Monday the state has received a $336,035 federal grant to improve and upgrade existing facilities at the park and to add several new features for picnickers and tourists.

The grant is expected to be put with state funds to provide a total of about $600,000 for new facilities and upgrading of old facilities at the state park, according to Elton Baker, park manager.

Plans for the renovation and the additional facilities are on the drawing boards now, according to Simpson's office, and are to be completed by July. A contract for the construction work is to be let in September.

Baker said it is possible the facilities could be ready for the summer influx in 1976.

The funds are expected to carry the state through an initial phase program on a master plan for the park, Baker said.

He said an extensive study was made of the park for upgrading of facilities and new facilities and the study concentrated on those things which could be accomplished while preserving the park's atmosphere.

"They've come up with what we think we can do without making it look like a concrete jungle," Baker said. "It should help the park quite a bit."

Included in the initial phase of the planning, and possibly included also in the funding for next year, will be establishment of a resident for an assistant park superintendent and additions to the maintenance complex.

Baker said a trailer loop is also planned for construction just north of the number one water crossing on the canyon floor. Then, just south of the crossing, an area for 18 to 20 picnic sites is planned.

Plans call for the refurbishing of the Sunflower camping area. The remodeling of old rock cabins near the southern end turn-around are planned and new restroom facilities are planned for that area, also.

Picnic areas are planned for construction near the turn-around at the south end and paving for the parking lot at the horse stables is planned.

Baker said the plans call for establishing an outdoor information center at the old Coronado Lodge at the canyon entrance. Mounted telescopes will be included for long-distance viewing of the lighthouse rock formation.

He said state workmen are already in the park for preliminary site preparation and planning for the expansion activities.

Officials predict tourism upsurge

With fears of a national fuel crisis put aside, tourists are expected to swarm into Canyon and surrounding attraction areas this summer in record numbers, according to local officials.

Officials from the musical drama "TEXAS," Palo Duro Canyon State Park, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce believe tourism will be big business again this summer. With the prime summer travel season only weeks away, they are preparing for the annual influx of travellers, most of whom come to the Canyon area to view what has become a nationally famous outdoor dramatic production.

"TEXAS" opens June 18 with a tribute to the dozens of local and area supporters who helped found the musical in Pioneer Amphitheatre on the floor of Palo Duro Canyon.

The play, written by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Paul Green, is expected to draw record crowds this season, even though facilities are limited to hold more than were held during the 1974 season.

Raymond Raillard, manager of "TEXAS," said he anticipates another record season — for the 10th anniversary year of the drama — even though the show played to near-capacity crowds last year.

More than 91,400 persons viewed the musical in the amphitheatre during the summer months of 1974 and Raillard said that amounts to about 98 per cent of the capacity. He expects about 92,000 this year for the show.

Already, he said, it appears that advanced reservations — particularly for conventions and bus tours — are running about two months ahead of this time in 1974.

He said 289 buses are booked for the show this year through early this week. A total of 423 buses came to the show in 1974. While Raillard said several nights are booked heavily for advanced tickets, "we have no nights which are near being sold out."

Elton Baker, manager of the Palo Duro Canyon State Park where "TEXAS" will be shown nightly except Sundays through August 23, said he, too, anticipates a record season. (See TOURISM, Page 5)

Fulgenzi wants meet with officers

County officials overspending

Randall County elected officials, overspending their budgets by what could amount to a $200,000 over run by the end of the year, will meet with county commissioners Monday to discuss their first quarter expenses.

Commissioner John Fulgenzi suggested Monday that each elected official meet with the commissioners to review "money spent versus money allocated for the year."

Fulgenzi said following Monday's meeting he wants to impress upon elected officials that the county is operating under a "tight budget" this year.

What has Fulgenzi worried are figures produced by County Auditor Betty Hodges which show that during the first three months of this calendar year each county official or department head has overspent a proportionate amount of his budget.

If the current spending rate holds true for the remaining nine months, expenditures could be expected to total $1,382,852, well over the $1,178,068 allocated in this year's budget for operation of the various offices and functions.

The figures indicate disbursements for the county tax office total $53,284 for the first three months of the year. Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, is allocated $172,177 for the year. If spending continues at the current rate, her office will have expended $213,836 by Dec. 31, 1975.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton has been allocated $69,984 in this year's budget, but if spending continues at the rate established in the first quarter of the year his office will have disbursed $77,144 by the year's end.

The office of County Judge Woody Pond is also running ahead of the spending level to end the year with a budget balance. The judge's office has been allocated $20,491 and is spending at rate during the first quarter which, if carried through, would mean a total expenditure of $23,120 by the end of the year.

The sheriff's office, with a first quarter expenditure total of $61,722, has been allocated $213,734 for the year and is spending in the first quarter at a rate which would lead to an expenditure total of $246,888 by the end of the year.

The road and bridge department is also aiming for a budget deficit if spending continues at the rate set in the first quarter. (See COUNTY, Page 5)

Clerk injury leads to insurance probe

After opening their afternoon meeting with a prayer for critically injured County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, county commissioners Monday looked into the possibility of providing income protection and major medical insurance for elected officials here.

Commissioners were discouraged by a report from local insurance agent George Blackwell who presented premium rates for providing workmen's compensation insurance for all county elected officials.

County Treasurer Bob McClelland suggested early in the meeting that commissioners consider taking out workmen's compensation on elected officers. McClelland said at least two elected officials have been injured "while in the scope of their duties" during the past year. Dist. Judge George Dowlen, then serving as district attorney, was injured in a car accident several months ago. Hutton was victim of a hit-and-run driver last Friday while on county business in Austin.

Blackwell told commissioners premium for workmen's compensation for the elected officials would be $894 per year, a figure commissioners indicated they felt is high.

However, Blackwell told The (See PROBE, Page 5)

Students again eye pool heat

Two West Texas State University physics students have refined the concept of heating Canyon's city swimming pool with heat from the sun and their figures indicate solar energy could be used in a system which would cost about $4500 to construct.

Students of Dr. Vaughn

Nelson, chairman of the physics department, the two experimented throughout this semester with types of solar heating units and came up with a prototype they believe is workable.

Ken Franklin, a senior biology major, and James McFarland, a senior education major, developed three experimental types of solar collectors which they threw out on the roof of the university science building.

Their calculations indicate a collector made from corrugated aluminum with copper tubing run along the valleys in the metal might be the most feasible for the city pool, but that it would also be the most expensive to construct.

Members of the WTSU swimming team and lifeguards during summer months, Franklin and McFarland began work on their solar collector experiment in January.

More than 300,000 kids will leave home during this year, some of them runaways and some throwaways.

Economic and domestic pressures are blamed. Parents sometimes don't want to be emotionally or financially responsible so they shove the youngsters out.

By and large girls fare worst. Many of them are picked up by white slavers and pressed into prostitution mills of large cities where the children runaways seem to gravitate.

The road back home is much longer than the road that got them there and many a bridge is burned in between.

Terrible need of this generation of children is for homes with loving atmospheres and adults who respect each other.

Pressures without historical precedent seem to grind away the home cocoon that once protected children at least until teenage.

The extended family is extinct. Kahlil Gibran, whose writings rival for beauty and wisdom those of the Biblical psalmist, said children are the arrows shot into the future.

If our arrows go wide or fall short of the target, who is to blame — the arrow or the bowman?

FEAR CAN MAKE ANY SICKNESS WORSE

Often, people will not go to their doctor when they are ill because they fear he will find something seriously wrong with them. But the truth of the matter is that your body now has fewer secrets unknown to physicians. And chances are he can quickly diagnose your problem and prescribe a medicine to give you relief.

Do not fear any possible sickness. Even some of those incurable ones can be lived with more comfortably if you consult a physician at the onset. Waiting too long can have serious consequences.

Our society could learn a lot from the Tassaday, the aborigine tribe of the Philippines discovered only recently by a hunter.

Scientists talking to a Tassaday leader asked him what the elders do when children argue: "We tell them to stop," the Tassaday replied.

"What if they don't stop?"

"We tell them again."

"What if they don't stop then?"

"We tell them again."

"What do you do when adults argue?"

The Tassaday leader looked blank and then replied with firmness.

"But adults do not argue."

The domino theory feared by John Foster Dulles two decades ago is finally coming to pass.

We have lost Indo China, the great rice basket of the Orient. Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos are gone. Soon Thailand will be in the communist sphere.

Japanese leaders undoubtedly are pondering the wisdom of trusting the American nuclear umbrella. If the US is asked to leave the Philippines, as seems possible, then the Japanese may feel forced into closer ties with mainland China.

Where would this leave Taiwan, India and even Australia?

The whirlwind hour is upon us. Where are the Norm Mothers with a man to fit our need?

Hit And Run

Suspect Held

Randall County Judge Woody Pond reported Wednesday that Austin police believe they have found the driver of a vehicle which cut down County Clerk LeRoy Hutton while he crossed an Austin street last Friday morning.

Pond said police officials told him a man in Ponca City, Okla., has given himself up to police in connection with the hit-and-run accident which left Hutton in critical condition in Austin's Brackenridge Hospital.

He said the name of the suspect has not been released.

Bake Sale Sat. For Girl Scouts

Canyon Cadette Girl Scouts of Troop 174 will have everything from cakes and pies to homemade bread for sale Saturday at Cooper's Thriftway in an effort to raise money for a trip to Six Flags Over Texas later this month.

Dr. Sue Park, sponsor of the troop, said the girls will also have a handmade quilt-fashioned from recycled denim for which they will take bids.

The bake sale will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the store.

Sue Park, leader of the Canyon Cadette Girl Scouts Troop 174, displays the handmade quilt fashioned by the girls of her troop. The quilt will go to the highest bidder Saturday when the girls set up a bake sale at Cooper's Thriftway. Funds from the sale will go into a fund to defray expenses of the troop on a trip to Six Flags Over Texas later this month.

Retiring WT Faculty Honored

Six West Texas State University faculty members retiring at the end of this school year will be honored along with the 1,005 graduation candidates at the WTSU Commencement exercises May 17.

Retirees are the former dean of the School of Business C.C. Callarman, former Biology Department Head Robert C. Busted, Professor of Military Science John Luke, Media Center Director J.D. Strickland, Assistant Professor of Biology Nora Killian, and Associate Professor of English Helen White Moore.

Dr. Callarman, who was dean and chairman of business from 1956-71, earned his doctorate of education from Oregon University in 1956. He has been honored in 1970 as "Outstanding Business Education Teacher" by the District XVI Texas Business Education Association in 1970, and as one of ten "Outstanding Alumnac" of the Central State College School of Business, Edmond, Okla., in 1965.

Indiana University doctoral graduate Robert C. Busted came to West Texas State in 1948 as professor and head of the Biology Department. An endowment fund in his name has been set up to provide scholarships for biology students. Dr. Charles Wright of biology is actively seeking contributions to honor Busted's work for the university.

Strickland, who received his doctorate in education from Texas Tech in 1957, has been an educator for 41 years. Before coming to WTSU in 1968 to serve as director of the Media Center, Dr. Strickland had worked at PESO Education Service Center, Odessa College, Texas Tech and West Texas High Schools. He was listed as "Who's Who in American Education" in 1957 and 1965, selected as Junior College Teacher of the Year in 1963 and named "Outstanding Man of Plainview" in 1947 and "Outstanding Man of Odessa" in 1962. Dr. Strickland has also served as an officer in numerous educational societies, technical advisor and leader in community projects.

Lt. Col. John Luke came to West Texas State in 1974 to serve one year as head of its Military Science Department, and will retire from military service at the end of this academic year. He earned a bachelor's degree from Park College in 1968 and a master's from Boston University in 1974.

Miss Killian came to WTSU in 1960 after teaching positions at Brenau College and the University of Georgia. The Mississippi native received her master's degree from Tulane in 1937, with an emphasis in bacteriology.

Miss Moore has spent 45 years of her life working at the University, having come in 1940 as an instructor of English. She received her undergraduate degree in 1927 from Judson College, Alabama, and her master's from Cornell University in 1929. She is a member of the Texas State Teacher's Association, the Texas Association of College Teachers, the National Council of Teachers of English and the Southwest Modern Languages Association.

CHS Building Trades Class Shows New Home Sunday

By LEONARD KENT

Students of Canyon High Schools' building trades are ready to show the community what hard work under proper supervision can accomplish.

The building trades classes would like everyone to visit their class project, a home located on the corner of 11th Street and 12th Street. Open house will be two afternoons, Saturday from 1 to 6 p.m. and Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served and tours through the home will be provided by the class members.

The two story brick home has 1950 sq. ft. of living area. It features such items as a 16-foot cathedral ceiling, stained glass front entrance, 14 by 16 foot wood burner, 2 bedrooms with a studio, double garage, 1 1/2 baths, a partially enclosed patio, large picture window, carpet throughout the entire structure, and refrigerated air.

Harold Hagemeyer, building trades instructor, said the students began construction of the home in November after they had finished two portable classrooms to be used at Gene Howe Elementary School next fall. According to Hagemeyer, the classes did all of the construction of the home with the exception of the plumbing, heating, electrical wiring and the mason work.

Several students made comments about the class to indicate how they felt toward the course. David Davis, an afternoon student, stated that "we receive no monetary payment for our work, but we do have a sense of payment in pride as one looks at the results."

This year's class is made up of 21 boys and one girl student, Plug Pehl. Since this was the first year for the class to be co-ed, this reporter asked Plug how she liked the class and if she would recommend it to other girls? Plug's response was that she enjoyed the course very much and wished some other girls would take it, but the course is definitely not one that all girls would enjoy. Plug stated that she would put her knowledge and skills to work this summer by building her Dad a new barn.

All members of the CHS building trades class would like to share seven months of experiences and accomplishments with the people of Canyon at this weekend's "Open House" celebration.

Marcia Longin, a Clarendon student at West Texas State University, has been named a missionary journeyman by the Baptist Foreign Mission Board and will be in Bulawayo, Rhodesia, for two years beginning in June. Miss Longin has been active in Faith Chapel here.

BOY, I'LL SURE be glad when they get my storm shelter finished. All these storms that have been moving around lately, make me a little nervous.

WE WANT to extend our sympathy to Peck and Faye Risner and family due to the death of Faye's mother, Mrs. C. A. Dodson of Canyon, last week. The funeral was Monday in Grace Baptist Church and burial was in Dreamland Cemetery.

LAST THURSDAY, PAT Reed had a couple of ex-park residents over for lunch and a visit. It seems Pearl West decided she would drive over and ask Doris Wallace to come along.

Now the unusual thing about this was that Pearl told us all the time she lived here, she didn't drive. Guess that was OK, because I don't recall her ever saying she didn't know how.

EUNICE AND BARNEY Rinehart decided to make a trip to Hobbs, New Mexico last Thursday to see Vera Fate, Barney's sister. They returned home Saturday after a very nice visit. On Sunday their son and family, Bob, Jo and Brent came out for a Mother's Day visit.

CALLED DOROTHY ROBERTSON of 244 Loma Linda to see how she and her family spent Mother's Day. She said they just spent a nice quiet day at home.

TALKED TO CAROLYN Bays of 102 Siesta on Sunday night. She said her Mother's Day was very quiet and pleasant. She did start her day with breakfast in bed.

SHARON, JAMES, SHANNON, Randy and Toni Jones went to Ute Lake this week end where Sharon's folks Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Newman of Hereford have a trailer on the lake. They were there for the week end also. The entire Jones family have motorcycles and they all do a lot of riding at the lake.

Oh yes, we can't let it slip by unnoticed, so a very Happy Birthday to Toni who was eight years old on May 11th.

LINDA SHAFFER SAID she, Kenneth, Patrick, Mark and Scott were back in the country this week end. They were working on the spot to put the trailer, when they move and also planted a garden.

When I asked her how her Mother's Day went she said, she cooked dinner on a camp stove. They are living in a tent on week ends. They were all very tired and sunburned when they got home.

KATHY BURGAN SAID she and the girls spent Mother's Day with her folks Gene and Maxine Collins in Amarillo.

TALKED TO JONNIE Robertson Monday. She said they have sold their trailer and will probably be moving around the 22nd of May.

She, Floyd, Joel and Daryl spent Mother's Day at Floyd's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robertson of Sanford. Jonnie said they had BBQ steaks for dinner.

Dewey Foster Recuperating

Dewey M. Foster is now home from Palo Duro Hospital for recuperation from a recent heart attack. He is now able to receive visitors, according to his wife, Kittie.

Recent visitors in the Foster home have been Dr. Manus R. Foster, Jerry F. Stallings and Mrs. Lucille Wright.

JAMES AND LINDA Grumke who lived at 110 Siesta, have bought a lot and moved on to it Saturday afternoon. They are now at 127 La Fiesta. Welcome to ownersville.

THE CUB SCOUTS are still meeting every Thursday afternoon. Linda Shaffer is their leader.

They made Mother's Day gifts last week. The boys are now working on rockets to enter in the upcoming rocket derby.

Plans are also being made for a Pack meeting in the very near future.

BOY SCOUTS HAVE been working on activity badges. They are planning a court of honor in the near future.

James Jones is the leader and Roscoe Shipley is the new assistant.

LAST SATURDAY MARTY Hoffman and Tod McKee hopped on their bicycles and rode in to Country Estates and got Dusty West.

Then the three of them rode in to get Jerry Huey and all rode on into Amarillo. They spent several hours riding around and eating.

When they rode home it seems they had peddled almost 30 miles. Good exercise, but sure sounds tiring to me.

GUESS I HAD better sign off for now, so Keep on Reading. Thought for this week, "Do your own thing and enjoy it, just as long as it doesn't hurt some one else."

See ya.

With an allocation of $272,395, the department expended $82,997 during January, February and March and if the level of spending continues could end the year with a total expenditure of $331,988.

Other offices, if they continue the spending rates established in the first three months of the year could end the year with deficits in their budgets of anywhere from $2000 to $14,000.

Only the office of County Treasurer Bob McClendon is spending in the first quarter at a rate which would at the year's end leave a balanced budget figure. McClendon is budgeted $11,178 for the year and first quarter spending if projected over the next nine months would mean a total expenditure of $10,844.

Fulgenzi said Monday it might be that county officials are running into extraordinary expenditures during the first quarter of the year, expenditures which need not be repeated later on.

Then National Vice Commander Jack Flynt and his wife, the former Mary Brandon Finley, County Judge and Mrs. Jack Driskill and H.M. Baggerly were special guests of the evening. H. M. Baggerly is the speaker.

American Legion and their auxiliaries from Hereford, Dimmitt, Nazareth, Happy, Hart and Tulia were present.

Five veterans of World War I from the Tulia Post were honored with fifty year memberships.

This was the last zone meeting of summer. Plans were made to attend the area convention in Odessa this week-end and the State Convention in July.

About one hundred twenty people called during the afternoon. Leona Henry of Canyon and Joe and LaJean Henry of Hereford were among those present.

Tom and I also dropped by to see Doc and Sally Gwynnes of courts."

Cox points out that Canyon is one of the few school districts or cities in the state without government-provided tennis courts for the use of townspeople.

Information gathered in 1972 to show the need for courts here indicate that Tulia, for example, had six tennis courts and a full-time tennis coach in its school district. Canadian, a 1A school, had seven tennis courts and a full-time coach.

"Tulia has a really active program," Kent said. "Nazareth has more courts than we do. I'll bet we're the only 3A school in Texas with no tennis courts."

Although Kent says the decision is not his to make, he can foresee the time in the not-too-distant future when townspeople will be banned from the 14 WTSU courts and the courts will be reserved for use by faculty, students and staff.

Interested tennis enthusiasts approached Canyon school board members and city commissioners about two years ago asking them to get together to work out the financing of jointly-owned courts.

While School Board President Tom Keeling came up with plans for construction of courts, no action has been taken by either body for establishment of courts here.

Cox and Kent still support the idea of jointly-owned courts, feeling that the city is responsible to provide recreational facilities for townspeople and the school is responsible for providing courts for the tennis team.

Canyon City Manager Glen Metcalf, who came to Canyon earlier this year, said he is not familiar with such a proposal.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs said figures indicate it would cost about $10,000 for each court if new courts were constructed, and he said the problem on the school end is money.

"It's something we need desperately," he said, "and I hate to blame everything on the legislature, but it's a matter of funding."

Jacobs said in comparison with other needs — for new classroom facilities and for library space — the new tennis courts have a relatively low priority.

"We're trying to run our tennis program with no tennis courts," he confirmed. "I just don't know how V. J. (Duncan, the coach) and the players do it. It's just a real poor situation."

Shamrock while we were over there. Doc had open surgery only five weeks ago. He and Sally both looked well.

When we returned home Ken was here to wish me a Happy Mother's Day. He had his college annual. I learned that he has been President of Clarendon College National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

THE SUNNYHILL HOME Demonstration Club members who attended the May Day luncheon of Randall County Council included Jo Hand, Gwynn Tucek, Lou Dougherty, and Barbara Danner and Bertie Culp.

Shirley Williams, our Woman of the Year, was unable to attend because she was notified of her father's being rushed to Amarillo to High Plains Baptist Hospital for surgery. Mr. Kelly lives in Hollis, Okla.

HAPPY FUTURE HOMEMAKER'S of America held their annual Ma, Pa, and Me supper on Tuesday evening. This is the time that FHA honors their parents and initiates the Freshmen.

MARY WILHELM IS home from the hospital, but she is confined to her bed. Mary says that she appreciates all the cards, thoughts and kindnesses that friends have sent.

GWYNN TUCEK IS in Canyon's Palo Duro Hospital. Eddie Walters is in Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo since Monday morning.

Mrs. Jack Helwig underwent open heart surgery at St. Anthony's on Monday morning.

Jo Ellen Harvey had surgery for the removal of a ruptured disc on Monday morning. She is in St. Anthony's.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS had a class party Friday afternoon. They enjoyed a picnic and outing in the canyons and then refreshments in Lisa Payne's home.

GENIE JACKSON ATTENDED a slumber party for Laura Meade of Tulia Friday night of last week. Laura then spent the night with the Jackson family and attended church with them Sunday morning. When the Jackson's returned Laura to her home, they visited Mrs. Vick Davis. Genie's adopted grandmother, and gave her a Mother's Day present.

ordered from a California firm. It consists of two pieces of plastic laminated together and channelled. Water is run through the plastic device which has a black bottom and is heated through the clear plastic top.

The students also made one air bag for heat transfer and fabricated a small unit using the corrugated aluminum and copper tubing.

Franklin said the corrugated aluminum showed the greatest heat transfer per unit area, but it might also be feasible to use the principle of the air bag with clear plastic top and black bottom.

The latter method of heat transfer for a swimming pool, he said, is being used on an experimental basis to heat swimming pools in New Mexico this summer.

Franklin said at least one pool in New Mexico, experimenters have dug a slit trench eight inches deep and a foot wide, painted the bottom with black paint and put plastic sheeting over the top. Water from the pool is run into the trench where it is heated and then recirculated into the pool.

The results of this experiment must be waited for, he said, to see whether the trench idea is successful for pool heating.

Cost for a slit trench type heating unit would be about half as much as the cost for installation of a corrugated aluminum and copper tubing device, Franklin said.

His figures indicate a solar collector of aluminum and copper tubing should be about 50 feet by 50 feet square to heat the Canyon pool adequately.

With the collector, the temperature of the pool water could be raised five to six degrees and that heat could be retained overnight with use of a pool cover.

Nelson proposed earlier this year that Canyon city commissioners heat the city pool by use of solar energy, but his figures indicated the cost of a solar collector would be about $6000.

Commissioners opted for the purchase of another boiler, which uses natural gas for heating, at a cost of about $1200.

News Tuesday that a check with the Texas Insurance Board revealed that the premium quoted Monday will probably be higher than the actual figure for which the insurance can be obtained.

Commissioner Dee Griffin suggested during the meeting that the insurance agent look into the possibility of the county providing disability income insurance for the elected officials.

In other business Monday, the rift between Treasurer McClendon and commissioners widened somewhat as the treasurer sought and was refused a salary increase for his secretary.

McClendon asked that the commissioners up his secretary's salary from a current $2.50 per hour to $3 per hour for that part of her salary which the county pays. He said the county currently pays her to work 50 hours per month and that he pays her to work a full 40 hour week with the additional expense coming out of his salary as county treasurer.

In essence, he said, his request would add $40 a month to her salary from the county treasury.

"I question whether that's out of line with the hourly rates we're paying," Commissioner Paul Lindsey said. "I don't know of anyone we're paying that much. We might be opening this up to others to come here."

Commissioner Dee Griffin joined Lindsey in questioning whether commissioners should raise her salary to an hourly level which would be above the prevailing hourly wage for other county workers.

But, Commissioner John Fulgenzi ruffled at the general suggestion.

"If you're trying to abolish your office," he began, "well, you keep saying you want to abolish the office but I've never heard you come to us and say how about reducing the salary of the treasurer to $1 and let us hire a competent bookkeeper. If the job's redundant it seems like you'd have a conscience about accepting the salary."

"I realize you're trying to make political hay," McClendon countered.

"No, you're the one," charged Fulgenzi. "I'm suggesting you drop your salary to $1 and pay her your salary."

"You drop your's and I'll drop mine," McClendon suggested.

"I didn't say that," Fulgenzi replied.

"What's good for the goose is good for the gander," said McClendon. "What I'm trying to do is something good for the citizens of Randall County rather than run for re-election like what we have here."

Finally, Griffin interrupted the exchange and reiterated his belief that it would be difficult to raise the salary of the treasurer's secretary in light of the hourly wage being paid other county employees.

"Would you consider any raise at all?" McClendon asked.

"No," Griffin said. "I don't think so." McClendon has clashed with commissioners earlier — since taking office Jan. 1 after campaigning on a platform which promised he would try to abolish his office if elected — on full-time help for the office and on location of a private telephone in the office.

Trash was another item for discussion among commissioners during their regular session.

Road Supt. Joe West reported that with the coming of spring has come the annual problem of trash dumping on county roads.

Griffin urged that those who dump trash on the roads be fined to the maximum extent of the law. Maximum fine for a conviction is $200.

Sheriff Cliff Longest was asked to work with West in tracking down several persons who have dumped trash on road right-of-way.

Longest received approval to participate in a crime prevention program this summer and was also given approval to deal with the state for a new teletype system which connects the sheriff's office with other counties in the state, several state agencies and the national crime information circuit.

Tom Black, a representative of the Canyon Senior Citizens Association, was scheduled to meet with commissioners to seek a contribution for the association's building fund. However, Black did not show up at the meeting. The senior citizens are seeking $25,000 to purchase the old First Christian Church building in Canyon for use as a senior citizens center.

Family Needs Fund For Machine

Canyon Community Family Services Association is conducting a major fundraising drive to secure at least $2,000 to aid the Glen Williams family in purchase of a kidney dialysis machine needed for the mother.

Mrs. Williams, who has a disease called polycystic kidneys, has been in Dallas since Easter in order to receive three weekly treatments on a dialysis machine. Her husband is a shop teacher at Caprock machine are being collected at the First National Bank and West Texas State Bank of Canyon and should be designated for the kidney machine fund.

High School and the family has three children, Drew, Becky and Lane, at home.

Gene Howe

Parties Signal Summer Vacation Near

By KAROLYN FARMER
AS THIS SCHOOL year draws to a close, just about everybody at Gene Howe has been or is going to be involved in something special. (That's certainly no news to all you busy teachers and parents.)

THE AMARILLO AREA Council of PTA annual School of Information was held Tuesday, May 6th, at the First Christian Church in Amarillo. The school is the big highlight for PTA in this immediate area.

This year musicians from Amarillo High and Bonham Jr. High provided entertainment for the group. Of course, I'm extremely prejudiced, but I enjoyed the entertainment last year much more—Marge Phillips and the 5th grade "Hillbillies" brought the house down with their picking and singing. The School of Information also provides workshops for training PTA officers of the individual schools. Mr. Luther Lawless led the workshop for Presidents and Principals, which I attended. He did an excellent job and, of course, got in quite a few plugs for good ole Gene Howe School. (I think he's pretty prejudiced, too.)

Troyce Mulherin led the workshop for recording secretaries.

Our PTA officers who attended the meeting and workshops were: Ernestine Harp, Luther Lawless, Troyce Mulherin, Sandra Wait, Gwyn Sellers, Janette Hale, Jackie Mayfield, Raydell Palmer, Glenna Schmidt, Georgia Sorrells, Jo Bruffett, Phyllis Hicks, Marion Marrs and Carolyn Farmer.

Our guests at the luncheon following the meeting were: Von Dean McGregor, Gay Cochran, Marge Phillips and Louise (Bromley) Dickerson.

A special proclamation from Mayor Vahue of Amarillo was read proclaiming May 6th, 1975 as School Secretary Day, which made our own Louise one of the really honored guests for the affair.

Marge Phillips and Ernestine Harp were also introduced to the group by Troyce Mulherin as being new recipients of PTA Life Memberships, which were presented to them the night before at the Gene Howe PTA meeting.

Mr. Jerry Jacobs was one of the "Big Wheels" at the head table. Special recognition was given to all retiring teachers in the Canyon and Amarillo school systems. Mr. Jacobs introduced Mrs. R. C. Henry who is retiring this year from Rex Reeves School.

MANY APOLOGIES TO Sarah Edwards and Gay Cochran, whose names were left off of the list of new PTA officers in last week's column.

Sarah served this past year as 3rd vice president and will hold the same office next year. (She's in charge of the Chili Supper and we can't afford to leave her off.) Gay Cochran will be serving again next year as the Teacher Representative on the Gene Howe Board, for which we're very grateful—she's really terrific!

THE PRE-SCHOOL DAY program on May 8th was certainly successful. Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Lawless, Mr. Yows, Mrs. McGregor, Mrs. Deckard and of course, Mrs. Hollingsworth, all spoke to the parents of children who will be in our kindergarten next year.

Over 50 parents and their children attended. And while the parents were gaining information about our school, the children met their new teachers and toured the building.

Ernestine Harp welcomed the parents on behalf of the PTA and Raydell Palmer was in charge of serving refreshments.

IT'S VITALLY IMPORTANT that our school have the names of all children who will be entering kindergarten at Gene Howe. This is the only way our school officials can determine how many kindergarten teachers will be needed next fall.

So if you have a new five year old child in your neighborhood or know of one in our area, please urge their parents to contact the school.

MRS. MARY JO Smith's 5th graders were hard at it this week when I visited them. Our son, Carl, was among the students who were making late Mother's Day gifts (which he said I wasn't supposed to see yet).

I hope I'm not revealing any secrets, but they were making beautiful plaques that I know all their mamas will be proud of.

Now, just because our son is in Mrs. Smith's room, please don't think I'm trying to "butter her up" when I tell you what a fine teacher she is. She definitely teaches and relates to her children on a person to person basis. They're obviously a well disciplined class not out of fear but out of respect and admiration for their teacher. (Most of them didn't even know I had come in the room so I knew that wasn't just their company manners.)

The bulletin boards in the room were varied and all were colorful and interesting. One of them had the word "Equality" with small posters proclaiming equal education, the right to vote and equal housing.

Another bulletin board featured "Ancient Life" with pictures of fish, amphibians, reptiles and mammals.

A large windblown lion and his friends brightened up one corner of the room; while another board had the words "The News" cut out of newspaper and featured various newspaper clippings.

While part of the class continued to work on their gifts or were in the process of cleaning up, Jay Tipps, Jay Spake, John Hammonds and Tod McKee quietly reclined on the rug reading their library books. (I'll bet their mothers will be pleased to hear that.)

Mrs. Smith also showed me one of the Metropolitan Achievement Tests which the children recently took.

April Gibson was the latest birthday girl in the class. And Vena Belyew will celebrate her eleventh birthday on May the 26th.

The newest student in Mrs. Smith's class is James Chapman who just came to Gene Howe last week. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summers and lives at Southgate Trailer Park.

OUR 3RD GRADERS took a field trip to the research center in Bushland on May 8th. Mr. Nolan Clark, whose son John is in Mrs. Langen's room, took the children on a tour of the center where they saw examples of the crops and conservation measures being used.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL our 6th graders for a really super show Monday night, May 12th. The theme was the '50's and the music ranged from "At the Hop" to "Muleskinner Blues", with a lot of fun songs in between.

The kids all looked great. (The main comment among the parents afterward was "We didn't look like that, did we?") All the girls wore long skirts, neck scarves and pony tails. The boys looked "real neat", too, with their hair slicked down.

And just another thanks to Marge Phillips, and to all the kids, for a real fun evening.

Mr. J.W. King and the Gene Howe Band will present a concert on Thursday evening, May 22nd at Gene Howe beginning at 7:30.

STEVE NELSON RECENTLY competed in the International Wrestling Finals in Houston. Steve wrestled in the 84 pound division against other boys from all over the United States. He was third in the whole division, which is definitely quite an achievement.

THIS IS THE last week that our student teachers from W.T. will be with us. Everyone at Gene Howe will certainly miss them and we hope they've gained as much from being with us as we have from having them here. It looks like there are going to be a lot of top rate new teachers in our area schools next fall.

MANY OF OUR teachers received service pins at the Canyon Classroom Teachers Banquet held last week.

Mr. Lawless and Helen Fain both received 15 year pins. Pat Stevens and Gloria McGill were both recipients of 10 year pins.

Those receiving five year pins were Alicia Niemeier, Elaine Trew, Dot Ford, Gloria Taylor, Geraldine Woodward, Rosemary Ramaekers, Margie Phillips, Marguerite Green, Suzella Parsons, VonDean McGregor, Marion Shoemaker, Gay Cochran, Mary Jo Smith and Eleanor Deckard.

Mary Coffman, one of our cafeteria personnel, also received a 10 year pin.

LYNN GILL, ONE of our LLD teachers, will receive her Master's Degree from WT in the graduation ceremonies this Saturday.

MRS. CHARLES FOWLKES (Joan) has recently been elected president of the Amarillo A&M Mother's Club. Brad Fowlkes will be a sophomore at A&M this coming fall.

MRS. KEN WALLACE (Ellen) is out and about (sort of) following knee surgery recently. I saw her at a baseball game and she was moving a little slowly on her crutches. But that didn't seem to hinder her from cheering for son Wayne and the rest of the team.

OUR SYMPATHIES ARE extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fain. Mr. Fain's mother passed away last week in Canyon. Mrs. Helen Fain is our cafeteria manager.

SOFTBALL AND T-BALL teams are now being organized at Gene Howe. Coaches are needed for all the grade levels, so please call Leonard Schmidt at 352-0741 if you would like to help.

ELIZABETH WILSON, OUR school librarian, has officially announced her engagement to Madison James Bellamy. Elizabeth is already busy decorating their new home where they will live following the wedding on June 28th.

DONNIE TRAMMELL RODE one of his father's geldings in the Registered Quarter Horse sale last Saturday. Wendell has just recently recovered from an appendectomy, so I guess you might say Donnie has taken over the reins, for now anyway.

JUST IN CASE your child didn't bring his note home from school, summer school registrations need to be made at the school by May 16th.

By Tom Lytle

After the Rough Riding was over, Teddy Roosevelt spent a lot of time making what he hoped would be remembered as profound statements. One of those is proving itself more every year. "We cannot afford to lose that preeminently typical American, the farmer who owns his own land." Many theories abound. Robert Aubrey lists it as a manifestation of what he calls the "Territorial Imperative." Others observe simply that a man will work harder for himself than for someone else. Undoubtedly true, but another, immeasurable factor is involved. . . . pride. American farmers are proud to be able to each produce enough for themselves and 50 others. And they're smart. Smart enough to use the right portions of ecology, mechanization, chemical know-how and management to make the same land produce more every year. In 65 years production per acre has increased more than 620 percent. The Rough Rider was right, we can't afford to lose the family farmer.

Winn-Vaughn Honored At Fete

The forthcoming marriage of Miss Nancy Winn and Mark Vaughn was feted with miscellaneous bridal gifts on May 8 at a shower in the home of Mrs. John Womack, 2504 12th Avenue.

Silver and crystal appointments were used on the refreshment table which was centered with a floral arrangement of apricot carnations and baby's breath in a silver bowl. Ivory candles accented the table and Miss Leslie Gallimore presided at the service.

Co-hostesses were Mesdames R. E. Barnard, Horace Carter, Larry Cook, Delbert Davis, H. R. Fulton, Jr., David LaBrie, O. A. McBroom, Luke McClelland, Bob Parks, Gene Read, Porter Vaughn, Robert Warren and Troy Burrus.

Top Student Teacher Named

Tanya Fraley, Canyon senior, has been selected as the outstanding elementary education student teacher at West Texas State University.

She was named at the annual banquet of the Amarillo Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary education organization, in the WTSU East Dining Hall.

Dr. Anderson, dean of education at Texas Tech University, was guest speaker for the event.

Miss Fraley, a special education major, did her student teaching at Coronado Elementary School and Olsen Park Elementary School of Amarillo.

She and her husband, Matthew, reside at Schaeffer Trailer Park, number 18.

News Brief

Dr. James Davis, head of the Accounting Department at West Texas State University, will serve as president of the Panhandle Chapter of Certified Public Accountants for 1975-76.

Coach Emphasizes Conditioning

"If a person is in poor condition, his reflexes are slower and he is more apt to be injured and the seriousness of the injury has a lot to do with the shape a person's in."

With this idea in mind, Canyon High School's new head football coach and athletic director Deane Wright recently began his off-season program with next fall's team.

"Our off-season program is real demanding and only those dedicated will make it," Wright said.

The daily drills during school time include weights, running drills, and agility drills. The workout consists of the squad being broken up into three groups. Each group goes through each of the three stations twice in an hour.

According to Wright, the athletes have to be on the go at all times. "It's hurry, hurry, hurry," he said.

The present program will last through the remainder of school but won't stop there.

The prospective football players will be encouraged to participate in a summer recreation program which is to be directed by Dr. A. J. Luquette, a physical education instructor at West Texas State University.

CHS coaches will be working with the program through the summer. Work on weights, agility and quickness will be stressed in the summer workouts that will be held on Monday.

Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

In addition to the regular workouts, a summer track team will be formed and will compete in approximately 12 meets.

Hopefully, Wright said, because of the off-season program, the 1975 Eagle football team will go into the season in good condition.

Commenting on next year's prospects, Wright said the defense "should be above average" but offensively, the situation is different. He cites a lack of size and experience in the backfield as things to be reckoned with.

Steve Zanchettin, a 9th grade student at Canyon Junior High, was named recipient for this year's Fightin Heart Award, given annually to the junior high athlete who shows the most enthusiasm and spirit in athletics. Some serious talk about West Texas gas

By K. B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president

Living in the middle of an area known for its abundant gas deposits, it's hard to imagine West Texans threatened by a shortage of natural gas. However, there is the possibility that governmental regulations could create a shortage here. If we are not vigilant, we could see much of our gas supply allocated to other areas. Or we could see price controls make it impractical for producers to drill additional wells in this area. What can the average citizen do to prevent that from happening? I would suggest that he be aware of the problem and support Pioneer's efforts to maintain our gas reserves.
